Welcome

Welcome to Bloomberg. You have joined a global community of more than 325,000 financial professionals. Taking full advantage of the Bloomberg Terminal starts with understanding the overall logic that connects you to the data, news and analytics you need to make fast, effective decisions.

In this brochure, we will introduce you to the basics so you can get started.

1. LEI overview

Bloomberg Anywhere® allows users to access their Bloomberg Terminal account from anywhere - whether that be at home or in the office. The B-Unit App or the B-Unit Device allow for a secure and seamless experience while tapping into the power of the Terminal.

1.1 Introduction

Legal Entity Identifier (LEI) is a 20-character, alphanumeric code based on the ISO 17442 standard developed by the ISO, and it is endorsed by the G20. It connects to key reference information that enables a clear and unique identification of legal entities.

1.2 Which entities can register for an LEI?

An LEI can be requested for all parties in a financial transaction including but not limited to:

- Registered Companies including Registered Subsidiaries
- Funds/Trusts
- Non Profit/Charity Organizations
- Government Bodies and Organizations
- Sole Proprietors (Individuals that appear in their local register)
- Branch offices (Main HQ entity must already have an LEI)

An LEI should NOT be requested for individuals or operating divisions. These entities should utilize the LEI of their parent organization.

1.3 Who can register my entity for an LEI?

LEI can be applied by the legal entity itself or can be requested by a third party. A self or third party LEI authorization form must be submitted during the LEI registration process.

1.4 Account/login setup

- To create a new account, click the "Create an Account" tab at the top right hand corner.
- Complete all required fields (*), read and agree to the Terms of Service and Privacy Policy, check the check box in the form, then click on the "Sign Up" button.
- After clicking the "Sign Up" button, you will be directed to the login page and you will receive an email verifying your account creation, as shown on the next page.
- To log in, enter account credentials and click Log in button.
- A Two-Factor Login Code (confirmation code) will be sent to the requested email address.
- Enter the confirmation code in the Two Factor Code box and proceed with logging into your account. At this point, you are logged in and a secondary ribbon should appear containing various action items as seen below.

1.4.1 Updating profile

After logging in, you can review your profile or update any details there by going to the account and my profile tab. You can amend details including the contact name, company name, contact phone number or address.

1.4.2 Adding and removing emails

An LEI account can be linked to up to 10 email addresses. You may use the same username and login with any of these emails and the same password.

To add or update any emails, you can click on the "account" button on the main ribbon and further click on "my profile" from the drop-down menu.

If any of the users have forgotten the password, they can always reset the password.

1.4.3 Adding and removing payment card details

A credit card will need to be stored in the payment profile page before setting up the auto renewal. To add the card details, you can click on the "account" button on the main ribbon, and then click on "my profile" and "payment" tab.

You can manually add a card there. Or if you have successfully created or renewed an LEI before, the card details will also be saved in this payment page.

1.4.4 Submission tracking and invoices

If you would like to check the submission status, you can click on the "account" button on the main ribbon and click on "my request". The tracking number and status will be shown in this page. If you have successfully created an LEI or renewed an LEI earlier, you will also find the invoice shown in the "invoice" column. Feel free to download this pdf file.

2. New LEI registration

2.1 General rules

There are 2 different ways to register for an LEI, via the web form or bulk Excel upload. The Excel template is typically used for submitting multiple records simultaneously.

To be considered for bulk pricing, a minimum of 10 records must be submitted per submission. The maximum amount of records permitted is 250 per bulk submission. (Therefore, in a scenario where you have 255 records to submit be sure to distribute the requests so that both files include at least 10 records).

2.2 Web form submission

1. Go to My Requests
2. Click on LEIs tab to view the LEIs you would like to update or renew.
3. Click on Download link under Actions column.

3.4 Auto renewal

Auto Renew is a feature that allows LEIs to be renewed on a recurrent annual basis without users having to submit a renewal application. Before setting this up, users should ensure their payment details are up-to-date. To check and amend payment details users will need to log in and go to Account, My Profile, Payment tab.

To set up Auto Renew users can go to Account, My Requests, Auto Renew tab. Here they can select the LEI(s) and then set day, month and payment type. By clicking on "Add/Edit LEI(s)" they will save the setting. If the user wishes to set up Auto Renew for all of their LEIs simultaneously they should first select a date and payment method and then click on "Add/Edit All" to save. Users will receive a confirmation email of the successful setup of Auto-Renew.

The date chosen as "Auto Renew date" will determine when the automated renewal application will be submitted to our team for review. Please note: This may not be the actual day of the renewal completion, as it may take a few days to process the application. Therefore, we suggest selecting a date prior to the LEI expiration (Next Renewal Date).

Users will be notified via email of the submission and later on of the completion of their renewal application. The payment will be charged on the selected card once the renewal has been confirmed and an invoice will be sent within 24 hours of completion.

Auto Renew can be removed or amended any time on the same Auto Renew tab. Please be aware that cancelling the Auto Renew setup on or after the Auto Renew date will not cancel a renewal application that has already been generated.

My Requests – Auto Renew

Your LEIs which are eligible for auto renew based on their registration status are shown in below table. Bloomberg LEI's Auto Renew option allows you to set LEIs to renew on an annual recurrent basis as long as your payment details are up to date. Any same day auto renew request must be submitted before 15pm UTC time. We use the domicile address and VAT associated with the payment type and credit card that you provided to us before when you purchased any LEI services to calculate tax. If the credit card is never used, we use the latest domicile address associated with any credit card purchase.

For more information about Auto Renew, check out our FAQ.

5. LEI update

5.1 Updating your LEI records - general guidance

Updating records can be done for individual records and in bulk using the web form or excel template described above. It is important to note that updates do not require payment. Throughout a given registration period (LEI Registration status is Issued), you are free to update your LEI as often as you would like. Typical examples of updates are in response to corporate actions of your company such as a name change, a location change, or a change in incorporation. Generally, you cannot submit an update if your record is in LAPSED registration state. If your LEI is LAPSED, you would need to renew it first in order to make an update.

5.2 Update procedure (web form submission)

To make an update with your LEI, you can either come to our "Web Form" or "Excel Workbook" page where you can see your LEIs. The following steps share how you can update the record by using the my requests function. Or if you have the LEI number, you can copy and paste the number in the box next to "Web Form" selection and you will be directed to the same web form.

Procedure

- Step 1: Click on the "Update" button in the LEI toolbar.
- Step 2: You will be prompted with the option of accessing the My requests, Web form or using a downloadable Excel Workbook.
- Step 3: If you choose the my request option, you will then need to go to click on the second tab of "LEI" to view the whole list of LEIs managed by you.
- Step 4: You can click on "update" in the Item Actions column and review the data in the web form.
- Step 5: If you have updated any entity data in the web form, data in the entity events will need to be filled. Please update the event type, effective date and select the type of validation documents.
- Step 6: Please upload a supporting document which shows the updated data. For example, if you have updated the name of the entity, please provide a business registration document or change of name document.
